

The major theme of Proverbs is the vast superiority of the wisdom of God. The secondary theme, however is just as important, perhaps more so is that the wisdom of God comes from a proper relationship with God.

In fact, the personification of wisdom as either a man's mother, or spouse is thinly veiled - actually an Old Testament representation of Jesus Christ, himself.

The relationship between Jesus Christ and the wisdom of God is so mutually inclusive that John, in his gospel, was inspired by the Holy Spirit to write; "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning." John 1:1

This relationship is so intimate between the words of Christ (Wisdom in Proverbs) and the person himself that reading various portions of Proverbs forces the believer to realize that only an intimate relationship with the Logos can fulfil the call of "Wisdom" in Proverbs.

The Call of Christ, Our Wisdom.

1 Cor 1:24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. ³⁰
But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

The problem with wisdom that does not come from an intimate relationship with Christ and his word is that man becomes arrogant, "puffed up" thinking that he possesses a superior advantage with those around him.

1 Cor 8:1b "...We know that we all possess knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ² The man who thinks he knows something does not yet know as he ought to know. ³ But the man who loves God is known by God.

The problem is that man tends to think that what he knows already is in complete agreement with what pleases god. This problem can even extend into Christian thinking. All it takes for a believer to fall into the problem of found in verse 2 of this text is for him to walk out of fellowship with the lord and human viewpoint takes over his thinking.

The call here is for man to get and stay in right relationship with Jehovah! There is no guarantee that a believer automatically thinks like god (has the mind of Christ¹) - it is a divinely enabled mental process - not a process of a finely tuned moral mind.

Human Viewpoint vs Divine Viewpoint.

Isaiah 55:6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: ⁷ Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. ⁸ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. ⁹ For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
Isa 55:6-9

The problem with the sinner and many nominal believers is that they think they can put the lord on "hold." That is, they can pray, go to church meetings, etc at their convenience. It's easy to adapt this attitude in such a prosperous economic situation such as our country, because there are frequently no "warning" signals that the lord is displeased with us. It's important to understand the call of wisdom (the Lord Jesus Christ) is now².

The word of God teaches in this text that man's thinking is so opposite, so wicked that there is no way he can think the way God thinks - even as a morally good man. We need to seek him and his viewpoint.

Human Viewpoint Characterized - Prov 7:6-27

Prov 7:24 Now then, my sons, listen to me; pay attention to what I say. ²⁵ Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray into her paths. ²⁶ Many are the victims she has brought down; her slain are a mighty throng. ²⁷ Her house is a highway to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.

Solomon had a thousand wives and mistresses. One lesson he learned however late in life was that wrong relationship with the lord and following after the gods of his wives was a tragic error (make that sin). Throughout proverbs Solomon makes a comparison between god's wisdom, characterized by a faithful spouse and human and satanic viewpoint characterized by the promiscuous woman. Here's wisdom; ^{prov 2:12} "Wisdom will save you from the ways of wicked men, from men whose words are perverse," ¹³ who leave the straight paths to walk in dark ways," and here's the promiscuous woman - human / satanic viewpoint; Prov 2:16 "It will save you also from the adulteress, from the wayward wife with her seductive words," ¹⁷ who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God."

² Hebrews 3:15 As has just been said: "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion." (NIV)

The issue of human viewpoint versus divine viewpoint (Wisdom) is clear -

Prov 9:10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. ¹¹ For through me your days will be many, and years will be added to your life. ¹² If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you; if you are a mocker, you alone will suffer." ¹³ The woman Folly is loud; she is undisciplined and without knowledge.

¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of the city,

¹⁵ calling out to those who pass by, who go straight on their way. ¹⁶ "Let all who are simple come in here!" she says to those who lack judgment. ¹⁷ "Stolen water is sweet; food eaten in secret is delicious!" ¹⁸ But little do they know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

Jesus Christ, Our Wisdom - Prov 8:22-36

The crux of Wisdom is Jesus Christ. In this marvelous passage the pre-existent Christ is speaking to all men. This passage is not teaching that Christ had a beginning - it is however, showing how important it is to have a right relationship with him. It speaks of his incarnation (vs 23-25). Verse 30, 31 is the "John 3:16" of the Old Testament. Finally, Jesus strips the word picture aside to reveal himself in a remarkable invitation to all men - Prov 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and receives favor from the LORD. ³⁶ But whoever fails to find me harms himself; all who hate me love death."³

Look up the words of Jesus himself in the following passages; John 5:24, 39, 40; 6:68; 20:31. In the book of Proverbs, Wisdom gives life, in every area of our lives. Jesus applies this life-giving capacity to himself. Mere accumulation of "wisdom" does not give eternal life or prosperous life in any form. Knowing Jesus Christ in a personal relationship, however does.

1 COR 1:30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

³ John 5:24, 39, 40; 14:6
